

ALPINE ARCHAEOLOGICAL CONSULTANTS, INC.

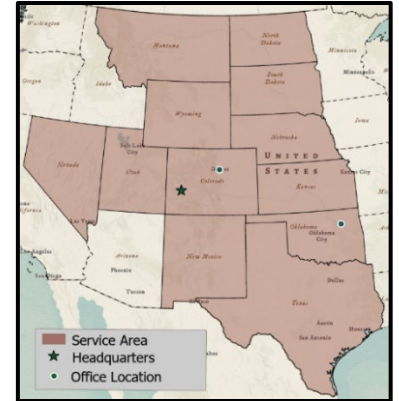

P.O. Box 2075
Montrose, Colorado 81402-2075

PROJECT ARCHAEOLOGIST or SENIOR PROJECT ARCHAEOLOGIST

Are you looking for a new opportunity to utilize your skills and further develop your career in cultural resource management? Alpine Archaeological Consultants, Inc. has an opening for a full-time Project Archaeologist or Senior Project Archaeologist, dependent on experience. We are a women-owned cultural resource management firm that collaboratively meets the needs of our clients on a variety of projects in a 12-state mountain west region.

Our Montrose, Colorado mountain valley headquarters location enables our staff and their families to enjoy an abundance of outdoor recreational opportunities. See why our area is so special here: www.visitmontrose.com

Hiring preference is for an individual willing to relocate near our Montrose headquarters or our Tulsa, Oklahoma office, however, we are also interested in applicants within our region who are willing to work remotely and travel to one of our offices regularly.

What You Will Contribute

You will provide excellent leadership during inventory, testing, and excavation projects. Our typical field work schedule is 8 days on, 6 days off which allows you to recharge in between field sessions. When not in the field, you will conduct background research, provide laboratory support, and write reports. You will collaborate with other Alpine team members to make National Register eligibility recommendations, evaluate site and project impacts, and design mitigation measures for all types of cultural resources.

Minimum Qualifications

- Bachelor's degree in Anthropology, Archaeology, or closely related field is required for this position. A Master's degree is strongly preferred for the position of Senior Project Archaeologist..
- Experience:
 - Project Archaeologist: At least two years of field supervisory experience in CRM
 - Senior Project Archaeologist: At least three years of field supervisory experience in CRM, including leading multi session projects with multiple crew chiefs.
- Permitted, or qualified to be permitted, as a Crew Chief or higher in all, or part of, our 12-state service area.
- An interest and ability in conducting, fieldwork that involves walking up to 10 miles a day in inclement weather, rough terrain, and/or high elevations.
- Proficiency in identification, recordation, and evaluation of prehistoric and historical archaeological sites.
- Demonstrable experience in technical writing and archaeological inquiry.
- Effective interpersonal and communication skills for field leadership and project collaboration.
- Willingness to travel for 8 day field sessions with per diem and single occupancy lodging is provided.
- Proficiency with software such as MS Word, Access, and Excel.

Salary and Benefit Package

Starting Salary Range:

- Project Archaeologist: $55,000 – 65,000/year, dependent upon qualifications
- Senior Project Archaeologist: $65,000 - $75,000/year, dependent upon qualifications

Staff benefits include:

- 11 paid holidays plus 13 paid vacation days in the first year and 10 paid sick days per year
- Health and vision insurance available upon hire; 100% employer-paid after 1 year for employee
- 401(k) retirement plan after one year employment that includes a 4% employer match
- As a corporate value, Alpine contributes additional profit sharing amounts to employee's 401k.

Please apply here: <https://alpinearchaeology.com/careers/>

Alpine Archaeological Consultants, Inc. is an equal opportunity employer.